Part of the Bear Hugs series, this text has a bright and bold design to appeal to young children and includes notes for parents giving friendly advice about shared reading.

These two great titles for small children combine well-known, traditional nursery rhymes with fun, colourful pictures and an exciting interactive element. Children can sing along with their favourite nursery songs and flip the flaps for some fun surprises. In Old MacDonald Had a Farm, the animal sounds are printed on top of each flap page so that young children can guess which animal is hidden underneath. In Ring a Ring of Roses, children can read eight best-loved nursery rhymes, including Ring-a-Ring of Roses, Georgie Porgie, Little Boy Blue and Little Miss Muffet, and flip the flaps to discover the last line of each one. These appealingly illustrated, interactive books are ideal for sharing, and young children will love joining in with the rhymes and guessing what's behind the intriguing flaps.

Old Macdonald had a Farm combines lively pictures with a classic rhyme that's easy for parents and carers to recognise and recite. Young children will adore singing along and making animal noises. The spotting game at the end is a great incentive to go through the pages once again until each tiny thing is found! Nursery Rhymes are important stepping stones to language development. The rhymes usually tell a story, too, with a beginning, a middle and an end. This teaches children that events happen in sequence, and they begin to follow along. Nursery rhymes are also full of repetition making them easy to remember, and often become some of a child's first sentences. Also available: The Wheels on the Bus, Twinkle Twinkle Little Star, Hey Diddle Diddle
