In a world where it's no longer acceptable besides bars and clubs to tell her she's attractive (at least without being rejected, receiving a sexual harassment lawsuit, and being publicly humiliated), there is only one place left for guys to go that's safe to approach women and where women WANT a man's attention: Online dating. When it comes to online dating, some men love it, while others shun it like a de-masculinizing plague. Online dating has a bad reputation among certain groups of men as being a waste of time or even an excuse to not meet women in the real world. But they have no idea that, with just a few hacks, online dating will save any man from a loveless, sexless existence. Love it or hate it, online dating is here to stay. This is the most comprehensive book on the market for online dating geared specifically toward men. Too many men have tried online dating, only to report that no woman answered their hundreds of messages and the dates they did have didn't end up going anywhere. This book will teach you what every other guy has been doing WRONG: - How to maximize your potential attractiveness to women - How to build the best online dating profile - How to send messages to women that ACTUALLY get responses - How to talk to women and get them to date you - How to get a one-night-stand from online dating - How to find a long-term relationship with online dating Throughout this book filled with raw experience and humor with a tough edge, you will learn all about the true psychology of women and how to "hack" their hypergamous nature using the techniques and tactics of online dating. Online dating might seem like rejection after rejection, but this book will teach you how to play the numbers game to your advantage and win more easily than every other guy on the web! About the Expert: Adam Glasier holds a PhD in Pickup Lines and is a distinguished professor of Online Dating at the National Pickup Artist Academy, where he wrote his oft-cited thesis on the Internet Approach—at least he would have if such an institution existed. His online dating career has lasted more than half a decade, and with more than a dozen full-fledged lays under his belt, Glasier is statistically one of the most successful men at finding love and sex from the internet. When he isn't messaging and meeting women with online dating or writing about those experiences, you'll find Adam pumping iron at the gym, building house-related projects, and basically doing everything that normal people do to survive. HowExpert publishes quick 'how to' guides on all topics from A to Z by everyday experts.

"Love is giving someone the power to destroy you and trusting them not to." Antuan Quentin This famous quote expresses the changes we experience when we fall in love. We are giddy in the beginning. We "become one" with our partners and lose ourselves. We trust too easily and too much. When we love, we give our all. We transform into someone we don't recognize. The Science of Love and Attraction aims to show you why and how our brain and hormones change when we fall in love and when we *are falling out of love. *A fascinating look at the changing role of wives in modern America After a half century of battling for gender equality, women have been freed from the necessity of securing a husband for economic stability, sexual fulfillment, or procreation. Marriage is a choice, and increasingly women (and men) are opting out. Yet despite these changes, the cultural power of marriage has burgeoned. What was once an obligation has become an exclusive club into which heterosexual women with the right amount of self-discipline may win entry. The newly exalted professionalized wife is no longer reliant on her husband's status or money; instead she can wield her own power provided she can successfully manage the business of being a wife. Wife, Inc. tells a fiercely contemporary story revealing that today's wives do not labor in kitchens or even homes. Instead, the work of wifedom occurs in online dating sites, on reality television, in social media, and on the campaign trail. Dating, marital commitment, and married life have been reconfigured. No longer the stuff of marriage vows, these realms are now controlled by brand management and marketability. To prosper, women must appear confident, empowered, and sexually savvy. Guiding readers through the stages of the "wife-cycle," Suzanne Leonard follows women as they date, prepare to wed, and toil as wives, using examples from popular television, film, and literature, as well as mass market news, women's magazines, new media, and advice culture. The first major study to focus on this new definition of "working wives," Wife, Inc. reveals how marriage occupies a newly professionalized role in the lives of American women. Being a wife is a business that takes a lot more than a vow to maintain—this book tells that story.*

Learn how to safely and successfully navigate the world of online dating. No, you do not have to reveal everything about yourself on your profile! Such a revelation in a public forum would not be wise. It is not untruthful, however, to withhold information. There are things that are only right to keep to yourself, even after the third date. However, you do want to present yourself and your personality truthfully. I can help you with that. In this book I will walk you through the process of developing an accurate profile that sets you up to meet people who are most likely to appreciate you for who you are. Discover how to keep your foot out of your mouth. The online world is highly competitive, that is why it is so important for you to know all the things that you should and should not do in order to be successful! Men and women respond differently; what is intriguing to a man may be a turn-off to a woman, and vice versa. Often the other gender's preferences will appear completely counter-intuitive. I've been careful throughout this book to include both male and female perspectives and offer positive suggestions while warning you away from instinctive choices that would not further your cause. Hugely increase your chances of success! With the huge surge in popularity of online dating over the past few years, there has never been a better time than today to learn the secrets that can help you experience success with online dating. Learn which sites will work the best for you; discover what you have that the opposite sex will find most attractive. Create a profile that will set you up to meet other like-minded people, post the sort of photographs that potential dates will find most attractive, and master the art of the first message. I will walk you through what to do and what not to do in your first face-to-face encounter and discuss how to conduct yourself on the first three dates, both for your safety and to help you make a great first impression. Discover how to progress to a more serious relationship. There is more to be learned about each other than can be discovered in just a few dates. If the friendship is viable beyond the third date or so, you can begin to open the door to even deeper conversations. If love is in the air, it is all the more important that this getting-to-know-you phase goes well. Even if romance is not immediately apparent, the friendship will require nurturing. I have saved some of my best advice for this part of the book; it is my desire that all your relationships will flourish, grow and be strong and healthy. What will you learn about online dating?
