

Divine Encounters A To Visions Angels And Other Emissaries

This book is an attempt to trace and find out the role of apostles and prophets in the Bible, and then share these in a practical way to help the church of today. It distinctively goes beyond the purview of the New Testament into the Old Testament, and some ancient literature, to bring out the wealth and depth of the subject, and then makes a case for it. Among others, this book deals with the call of God, the constitution and functions of a prophet and of an apostle, Spiritual gifts, the difference between apostles and prophets, and how to test the manifestation of the Spirit. One important issue, which this book addresses, is how the leadership of the church dropped from apostles to bishops. You will enjoy reading it.

The God of the Bible is not a concept to be studied but a divine person each of us can and should encounter personally. Into His Presence Volume 2 uses the documented encounters of the prophets of old with the God of History as tools to help you understand the character of God as a person. In this book, you will see the God of the Bible as a divine person encountered by the prophets and the writers of the Old Testament. The approach to the study of the Bible presented in this book will completely change how you read the Bible and how you perceive the divine author of the Bible. In this book, you will learn how many historically documented conversations each of the great prophets had with God and understand that Jehovah moved with purpose in each of His encounters with His prophets. Your understanding of the character of God will be enriched as you see Him through the eyes of Elijah, Jehovah's defender against religious and political leaders who waged an aggressive campaign against the worship of Jehovah. You will be enlightened as you examine the person of Jehovah through the eyes of Isaiah and understand why he saw Jehovah as the only Savior and the coming Messiah. You will be amazed by the number of conversations Jeremiah had with God and see how His encounters with Jehovah demonstrate that encountering Jehovah can completely transform your views about His person. You will walk with Daniel, Zachariah, Esther and Nehemiah as their relationships with Jehovah turn them into His ambassadors in their own world. Through the enumerated experiences of each of the prophets, you will come to understand the consistent character attributes of God as a person over the course of history. You will conclude that God is a divine person with whom you can also have an intimate relationship. As you read this book, you will feel the God of the Bible personally calling you into His presence.

This book introduces readers to Vodou's rich history, powerful ancestors, and vibrant spirits, known as Lwa. With more than one hundred breathtaking illustrations, Vodou Visions reveals how to honor and invoke the Lwa with specific ceremonial offerings and litanies. Using methods drawn from more than twenty years of practice, Vodou priestess Sallie Ann Glassman shares purification and empowerment rituals for individuals, communities, homes and spiritual spaces.

What if you couldn't have sex with your partner, would it matter? Do you think you could still love and be with him or her? What if biblical scriptures could reveal a hidden view of what it means to be accepted for who and what we are as spirits having a human experience? Would it help ease the intense hatred toward individuals whose calling in life involves their sexual identity? Dear Morgan, God Doesn't Hate You Because You're Gay, by author Metanoia Spirit, deals with this issue. Morgan, who is the author's friend. Or she was until her sexuality came between them, and Morgan ends their friendship. Spirit misses her friendship, so he writes this book in the form of a letter. He shares with Morgan bible scriptures to explain why he believes the way he does and explain that God doesn't hate her because of her lifestyle, despite what some people say. This letter is not only to Morgan. It is also for those whose lives are filled with confusion about God's unconditional love for them. The scriptural evidence shared in Dear Morgan, God Doesn't Hate You Because You're Gay is substantial, but not everyone will see it even though it's right in front of them.

Readers uncover author Donna Rigney's powerful connection to Jesus through her divine encounters. This book explores her visions of heaven and hell as she explains her ability to interpret dreams, recall her experiences to heaven and hell, while providing readers with a multitude of profound insights. This book can assuredly function as Christian life prayer, as Rigney discusses the importance of maintaining a prayer regimen. Rigney's extraordinary visuals and sensory recollections of heaven and hell create a piece that informs readers of the reality of an afterlife. While exploring Rigney's refreshing connection through the autobiographical elements of this piece, readers will ultimately prosper in the battle of spiritual warfare, learning how to triumph over Satan's influence. Rigney's unique scriptural knowledge and commentary enables this book to promote spiritual and personal growth for the Christian audience. Readers will become empowered to strengthen their faith, value forgiveness and seek salvation before it is too late. Doc shares in this book NINE MAJOR times Jesus Christ personally Appeared to Him. Each appearance had a life-changing effect. Even as Jesus has appeared to Dr. Yeager. HE wants to appear to you! John 3:2 Beloved, now are the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be; but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. In this book, you will also learn about FIVE Different Levels Of Visions, and Dreams in which God will speak to you, and reveal his will. At each level, Doc Yeager will share his own personal experiences on that level. These experiences (with scriptural foundations) will give you a much greater understanding of how God works in this Supernatural and Divine Way. Over forty other Visions and Dreams are shared in this book.

Meat Micah Chen, a ten-year-old boy from Houston, Texas. Micah's parents are both from Taichung, Taiwan, where his father started attending the Jen Der Baptist Church in second grade, and his mother the Liu-Yuan Presbyterian Church. Micah's dad, Michael, became the pastor of Formosan Presbyterian Church in August 2008. Micah leads a very normal life for a ten-year-old, full of basketball and piano lessons. But in the summer of 2013 when his family was visiting relatives in Taiwan something unusual happened to Micah. He had a dream, but not just any dream. He had a dream about taking a trip to Heaven. Then he had another dream, and then he began to see visions while awake, and Micah continues to have dreams and visions from God still today. ""Told by his mother, Huichen, Visions from the Most Devine describes the dreams and visions that young Micah began to have the summer of 2013. From seeing angels singing with the choir of his father's church to seeing the spirit of a little boy during his funeral, to walking with Jesus through His final days, Micah has had a number of visions from God and has been able to watch scenes from the Bible play out in front of his very eyes. His mother did not know what of all these visions in the beginning, but has come to think of these visions as proof that God wants to use everyone and that Micah's purpose is to tell his story to prove that there is a Heaven and Jesus came to save people's lives.

Sybil came to know the Lord in 1978. Since her first encounter with the awesome presence of Almighty God she has pursued the Lord intensely. Miracles, divine encounters, divine intervention, hearing the audible voice of God, seeing visions and dreaming dreams have filled her journey with the Lord as she has sought to do his will.As a Christian psychologist she often shared with her clients her personal life stories of encounters with God. She sought to inspire and encourage her clients towards their own pursuit of intimacy with God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. Over the years her clients encouraged her to record her stories to share with others as they found them invaluable in prompting their own walk with the Lord. God and Me is a collection of 80 real life stories of personal encounters with the supernatural, the kingdom of light and the kingdom of darkness. When the children of Israel became discouraged they reflected on Gods miracles and the ways he had revealed himself to them throughout history. If you are discouraged, if your spiritual life has become lack luster, if youre not sure what to do next, God and Me is sure to inspire you to pursue the heart of God like never before.

Divine Initiative and the Christology of the Damascus Road Encounter

Explains the links between the Bible and ancient Sumerian texts, probing the age-old question of the relationship between humanity and its creators. • Challenges scientific maxims of the basis of human life. • Draws fascinating parallels between the leaders of the Anunnaki (from the 12th planet) and Yahweh. • A comprehensive new look at the history of man. • First time available in hardcover. In Divine Encounters Zecharia Stichin draws on basic Judeo-Christian texts to analyze the creation myths, paralleling Biblical stories to the myths of Sumer and Mesopotamia in order to show that humanity did not evolve without assistance. Stichin daringly hypothesizes instead that Enki, one of the leaders of the Anunnaki from the 12th planet, created humanity as a "primitive worker." Furthermore, Stichin suggests that the extraterrestrial encounters of today demonstrate the continued interest of the Anunnaki in the Earthlings they created.

Offers teachings intended to inspire readers to accept God's calling and engage in prophecy on His behalf.

Are you preparing for Heaven and Jesus Christ's soon coming? This book is a result of direct messages and visions from our Lord Jesus Christ and true experiences that members of our ministry have had with Him since 2010. We are sharing these Biblical teachings, testimonies, and visions for your edification and to encourage you to: * Keep growing in your relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in readiness for Heaven. * Grow in your faith, trusting God, seeking Him, being obedient to His Word, and bearing good spiritual fruit. * Fear the Lord, heed His corrections and live a holy life in preparation for the end time and His soon return. * Study your Bible, pray, share the Gospel and be faithful in your walk with the Lord Jesus Christ. And have you completely forgotten this word of encouragement that addresses you as a father addresses his son? It says, "My son, do not make light of the Lord's discipline, and do not lose heart when He rebukes you, because the Lord disciplines the one He loves, and He chastens everyone He accepts as His son." (Hebrews 12:5-6) "Look, I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give to each person according to what they have done." (Revelation 22:12)

ARE YOU PREPARING FOR HEAVEN and THE SOON RETURN OF JESUS CHRIST? This book, the second in the series, chronicles some of the messages and visions we have received from our Lord Jesus Christ, as well as true experiences that our ministry members have had with Him. In this book, we continue sharing teachings, testimonies, and visions that are Biblically-grounded for your edification, to encourage you to: "Endure persecution and overcome temptations. "Learn how Satan is working to deceive and destroy Christians. *Learn to overcome deception through studying the Word of God. *Be inspired and motivated to fast and pray for breakthroughs. *Learn to fear God alone and stop fearing man, the devil, death, or life's circumstances. *Be aware that Heaven and Hell are real, and be warned and encouraged to repent and have faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. *Be filled with God's great love for you and hope for eternal life. "Understand God's care and presence with you through your trials and learn not to blame Him who helps you. *Learn to wait for the Lord to avenge you instead of seeking revenge stemming from hateful feelings. *Gain understanding of God's perspective on Christian marriage, divorce, remarriage, and adultery. "Look, I am coming soon! My reward is with Me, and I will give to each person according to what they have done." (Revelation 22:12)

Fasting An Exceptional Human Experience Since restricting, fasting has been used in various ways as a means of transformation. As a spiritual practice, it is the oldest and most common form of asceticism and is found in virtually every religion and spiritual tradition. In psychology, studies have suggested that fasting can alleviate the symptoms of some psychiatric conditions, including depression and schizophrenia. In medicine, fasting is one of the most promising therapies, with research suggesting that fasting can cause certain drugs, such as chemotherapy, to work better while reducing drug side-effects. Hunger striking, sometimes called political fasting, may be the most powerful application of fasting. Proof of this occurred in 1948 when Gandhi's hunger strike caused millions of Hindus and Muslims in India to cease their fighting. As a practical guide, Randi Fredricks, Ph.D. provides detailed information on the different types of fasting, where people fast, the physiological process of fasting, and the contraindications and criticisms of fasting. Using existing literature and original research, Dr. Fredricks focuses on the transformative characteristics of fasting in the contexts of psychology, medicine, and spirituality. The relationship between fasting and transpersonal psychology is examined, with a focus on peak experiences, self-realization, and other exceptional human experiences. Dr. Fredricks demonstrates how fasting can be profoundly therapeutic, create global paradigm shifts, and provide personal mystical phenomena.

The paper on the second volume of Stichin's autobiographical account of his investigations and discoveries led to The Earth Chronicles series • Zecharia Stichin tells how his life was at risk inside the Great Pyramid and reveals the existence of a secret chamber • Reports on Vatican encounters, the Isman of the Alps, the Antikythera computer, the temples and Ruts of Malta—and offers a solution to the enigma of the Nazca lines • 18,000 copies sold in hardcover since September 2007 In Journeys to the Mythical Past the renowned researcher of antiquity Zecharia Stichin reveals, for the first time, the existence of a secret chamber in Egypt's Great Pyramid, and he tells his own story of an indefatigable dedication to finding the truth that almost cost him his life—accidentally or otherwise—when uncovering secrets of the Giza pyramids and Sphinx. Exposing hidden artifacts that contradict establishment assumptions or that baffle scientists, Stichin's firsthand accounts of his explorations take the reader into the inner workings of the Vatican, the enigma of a futuristic computer from millennia ago, and the secret handwork of a Divine Architect at Stonehenge, at Malta, and at a site in the Americas. Looking deep into antiquity, Stichin offers astounding evidence that links the Nazca lines and a baffling adjoining site to the Departure from Earth of the Anunnaki, the ancient gods who, he believes, vowed to Return.

Inside the pages of this book, I did not begin with a get rich scheme, motivation speech, ecumenical movement, or philosophic arguments for the reality of God. However, one will read of things never heard preach from many pulpits in this age we live. One will be captivated, thrilled with amazement of the different dimension, and translation spoken of in this book. In addition, one will gain understanding of the mysteries of Jesus Christ, things prophesy to come, and how to pray, the privilege of prayer, and what happen, if one does not pray. T. L. Dockery, has no appetite for God's word when he was living in sin. However, on January 26, 1980, he had a Divine encounter with Jesus Christ in the living room of his home. There he repented of his sins, accepted Jesus as his personal savior, Baptised in water, in the name of Jesus Christ, and was filled with the Holy Spirit.

Presents information on Stichins theories about the origins of mankind and the intervention of intelligence from beyond the Earth. He and the other contributors offer a scholarly approach to the ancient astronaut myth. Contains the complete transcript of the first Stichin Studies Day, held in Denver, Colorado on Oct. 6, 1996. Following Stichins detailed keynote address are six other prominent speakers whose work he has influenced. They include philosopher Neil Freer, UFO expert J. Antonio Huneux, clergyman Father Charles Moore, author V. Susan Ferguson, and two university professors, Madeleine Briskin and Marlene Evans. They agree that certain myths were actual events instead of figments of imaginations. Stichins work comprises the early part of a new paradigmome that is already beginning to shake the very foundations of religion, archaeology and our society in general.

The Damascus road encounter between Jesus and Paul is foundational to understanding the early development of Christology, and, indeed, Christianity, since it is the first appearance of the post-ascension Jesus contained in the earliest Christian literature. This study examines the encounter as it is described in Paul's epistles and the book of Acts. Since Paul interprets his experience within the Jewish tradition, this study begins with a survey of epiphany texts in the Old Testament and other ancient Jewish literature. This reveals two new categories for appearances of God, angels, and other heavenly beings: Divine Initiative and Divine Response. This survey also finds two distinct patterns of characterization for God and other heavenly beings. These findings are then applied to Paul's accounts of his Damascus road encounter. Paul depicts the encounter as a Divine Initiative epiphany. This conclusion is significant, since it argues against the current view that the encounter was a merkabah vision. Paul's Christology in the Damascus road encounter is also significant, since Jesus is characterized as divine. Such divine characterization is not typical for heavenly beings in first-century CE epiphany texts. Thus, a high Pauline Christology appears to be present at a very early point. The three accounts of the Damascus road encounter in Acts also fit the pattern of Divine Initiative—not merkabah—and exhibit the high Christology of Paul's accounts. In fact, the three accounts in Acts are shown to form an intentionally increasing sequence culminating in the revelation that Paul was called to be an apostle by Jesus himself on the Damascus road.

"I highly recommend it to everyone who is looking for proof of the love and caring of a universal God." George G. Ritchie, Jr., M.D. Author of Return from Tomorrow and My Life After Dying Herein is proof that we are never really alone and that the Divine is very much involved and concerned with all of humankind! Divine Encounters provides indisputable evidence that individuals from every religious background - and no religious background at all - have experienced personal encounters and contact from Spirit in their everyday lives. Through stories of regular people of all ages and historical encounters from many religious traditions there is a wealth of confirmation that God is very much alive! These divine encounters are experiences that have occurred in dreams, in the midst of life's challenges, in chance encounters, within the sounds of a Voice, in visions and visitations, and at the edge of loss and grief. In addition to contemporary accounts examining the variety of ways in which individuals have encountered the Divine, this volume provides a selection of stories from history, exploring the lives of Padre Pio, Vivekananda, Flower Newhouse, Shanti Devi, Starr Dally, and Irina Tweedie as a means of demonstrating that these experiences transcend religious boundaries. Also explored are the amazing commonalities that are most frequently cited by individuals encountering Divine visits of their own, such things as the fact that the experience leaves individuals forever changed and provides a source of lifelong encouragement and that the experience embodies a sense of oneness with the rest of all Creation. Perhaps more than anything else, Divine Encounters suggests that there is much more to us than a physical body.

From the beginning the devil envied God and wanted to be worshipped. He rebelled against God and was thrown out of heaven. From that time there has been a war between God and the devil. This is the Genesis of Spiritual Warfare. In the Garden of Eden, the devil succeeded in tempting Adam and Eve. The first created beings forfeited all the blessings God had given them and were cursed. The Lord Jesus had to come to offer Himself so all creation may be set free from the curse of the law and sin. Even after the crucifixion of Jesus, the devil is still fighting God's people like never before. This book is going to help you combat warfare in the spiritual realm and I will share some of my real-life experiences in spiritual warfare. This life changing book will expose the devil, his tactics and will certainly encourage and strengthen you to keep hoping and fighting. Giving up in life is not an option. As you read, know that you are a soldier of Christ. 1 Corinthians 10:13 says, "No temptation has overtaken you except such is common to man, but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also provide a way of escape, that you may be able to bear it."

This book celebrates the seven major Archangels and their divine feminine complements, the Archaiei, who work for God in establishing a more heavenly kingdom on earth. These angels of peace, inspiration, healing, love, courage, wisdom and compassion are beautifully illustrated in full color on coated glossy stock with two-color metallic borders. Readers will learn about the angelic realm, the Three-fold Flame that burns in everyone's heart, and the seven rays of Enlighthment refract daily through the earth's atmosphere into our lives. It is truly a beautiful production". -- NMPRA Review

This brand new book by Revivalist Mubalisi Eke is the essential guide for a shift from complacency to power. From rhetoric's to a divine encounter. It promises to challenge your sense of comfort in God, to step out into unknown territory of divine encounters and to help you get to your best life yet. This book is for all those who are no longer willing to settle in what has been before, and for those who are willing to step out into unknown territory - the time is now. The Church that will be remembered tomorrow is the church that is powerful in words and in deeds. Those whose face sees His face will never fear the face of men.

I have written A Path of Divine Encounters to describe the divine experiences I had while traveling this journey of life on earth. It is written in such a way that anyone will be able to read it. In the first part of my book, I described all the dreams, visions, and experiences I had with the Most High. I shared it with you as it happened. I did not give more than I experienced, nor did I leave out any detail. This is the truth, just as it happened. The words God spoke to me, I wrote down, word for word. In the second part of the book, I did some teaching on subjects like music and pictures and how to tab into everyday experiences.

The book is about the supernatural side of the Christian experience, covering topics about visions, dreams and divine encounters with God.

DO NOT BUY THIS BOOK IF YOU OWN THE "Trilogy" or ATS: Book 2, its primary source. (This, the fifth book in the Awakening The Soul series, is the story of the discovery of the suppression of almost all the traits of our spiritual nature by those who should have been protecting and enhancing them. By the time you get to the end of this book, you will understand what Western Religions have done to the world. This realization grew to the point where it became obvious this most vital information needed a wider, more immediate audience for greater exposure than just to those actively seeking spiritual awakening. These historically-documented truths, many presented here for the first time, are something every contemporary Christian, Jew and Muslim should know.)

The overarching aim of this work is to develop a new account of the doctrine of the Trinity that is more attentive to human experience. It will be argued that such an approach is overdue because contemporary trinitarian theology pays insufficient attention to the fact that theology as linguistic discourse is inescapably embedded in human experience. This neglect is particularly worrying because many theologians who favour a kind of social doctrine of the Trinity claim that the Trinity is a social reality with practical consequences for human life. The main thrust of this project, therefore, is to re-examine the doctrine of the Trinity more creatively with human experience and to develop an understanding of how and where the triune God is in relation to human life as it is lived and experienced by human beings. The discussion is divided into five chapters. Chapter One highlights the need for a new approach engaging in a critical discussion with some trinitarian theologians. By giving the heart and mind Levels III-A Visible Vision Laid Over The Top Of Your Eyesight, Level IV-Open Vision Where Everything Disappears but the Vision Level V-Whether in the Body or Out Of The Body You Cannot Tell.

A study on the supernatural is very broad; therefore, it is my goal to help individuals understand the supernatural from a scriptural perspective by defining the prophetic. In doing so, the reader will embrace the vast biblical extent of man's interactions with God, explore various dimensions of the Spirit realm, and learn what it means to live under and open heaven. In fact, this book will cover over 21 ways in which God may choose to interact or communicate with us as believers and much more. This is a book of both information and inspiration. The pages of this book will literally come alive, as there have already been testimonies of various God encounters from those who have previously reviewed the writings contained. You will not only read this book, but you will experience what you read, and the things you learn will stir up the gifts that are on the inside of you. Get ready to take the limits off of your life. Get ready to be accelerated in the prophetic, because God is about to blow your natural mind with a supernatural revelation. I reiterate that this is not merely a book. This is an impartation.
