Ever since I can remember I have had an insatiable desire to travel. I have always wanted to see the world, experience new things, and have a pretty good time while doing it. Unfortunately, there was a rather large barrier to my dreams of travel. Namely the fact that travel is incredibly expensive. Which is when I started to explore my options and stumbled upon the concept of teaching English abroad. After looking into it further, I realized that it was exactly what I was looking for. An opportunity to travel, immerse myself in an entirely different culture, and make money while doing it. It truly sounded too good to be true. But I quickly found out it wasn't. Since that time I have worked teaching English abroad in over a dozen different countries. I have had the pleasure of seeing some incredibly beautiful places and meeting some truly amazing people. The work is rewarding, and the lifestyle is perfect. But the process required to get to this point took quite a bit of trial and error, in which it certainly wasn't as easy as it could be. Which is actually what prompted me to write this book. By learning from my experiences, you can find out everything you need to know to teach English overseas. In the following book you will find: What you need to do to become an English teacher abroad What qualifications provide you with the best job opportunities Where the best places to start your teaching career are And how to make sure you get the chance to work and travel overseas While I can give you the required information on HOW you can become an English teacher abroad, you are the one who truly needs to make this change. While the information within this book has the capacity to change your life, you are the one who needs to take the jump. And it is seriously a single click away. With this in mind, I should also note that this book comes with a money back guarantee - if you are not happy with the results you observe after implementing the ketogenic diet into your life, then you get your money back, no questions asked.

David Crystal's classic English as a Global Language considers the history, present status and future of the English language, focusing on its role as the leading international language. English has been deemed the most 'successful' language ever, with 1500 million speakers internationally, presenting a difficult task to those who wish to investigate it in its entirety. However, Crystal explores the subject in a measured but engaging way, always backing up observations with facts and figures. Written in a detailed and fascinating manner, this is a book written by an expert both for specialists in the subject and for general readers interested in the English language.

The CEFR Companion volume broadens the scope of language education. It reflects academic and societal developments since the publication of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) and updates the 2001 version. It owes much to the contributions of members of the language teaching profession across Europe and beyond. This volume contains:

- an explanation of the key aspects of the CEFR for teaching and learning;
- a complete set of updated CEFR descriptors that replaces the 2001 set with: - modality-inclusive and gender-neutral descriptors; - added detail on listening and reading; - a new Pre/A1 level, plus enriched description at A1 and C levels; - a replacement scale for phonological competence; - new scales for mediation, online interaction and plurilingual/pluricultural competence; - new scales for sign language competence;
- a short report on the four-year development, validation and consultation processes. The CEFR Companion volume represents another step in a process of engagement with language education that has been pursued by the Council of Europe since 1971 and which seeks to:
 - promote and support the learning and teaching of modern languages;
 - enhance intercultural dialogue, and thus mutual understanding, social cohesion and democracy;
 - protect linguistic and cultural diversity in Europe; and
 - promote the right to quality education for all.
