While he justified capitalism as one of the only bulwarks against 'misery', just as Hobbes had justified Leviathan, so other writers saw an 'elective affinity' between the particular kinship and marriage system and capitalism. Marx highlighted the capitalistic assumptions of work in a number of ways.

Chapter 14. The Malthusian Marriage System in Perspective
Kinship is not a new topic in the interdisciplinary study of migration. Whereas neoclassical economic models (e.g. Sjaastad, 1969), interpreting migration as an individual cost-benefit decision, were once popular and influential, they are now considered outdated. The Economics of Labor Migration (NELM) criticized these approaches for their emphasis on the role of the individual ...
