Instant New York Times bestseller! “A remarkable, breathtaking, earthshaking, poetic thriller!” —Daniel Jose Older, New York Times bestselling author of Shadowshaper “In this riveting, keenly emotional debut fantasy, a Black teen from Houston has her world upended when she learns about her godly ancestry and must save both the human and god worlds. Perfect for fans of Angie Thomas, Tomi Adeyemi, and The Hunger Games! “Make a way out of no way” is just the way of life for Rue. But when her mother is shot dead on her doorstep, life for her and her younger sister changes forever. Rue’s taken from her neighborhood by the father she never knew, forced to leave her little sister behind, and whisked away to Ghizon—a hidden island of magic wielders. Rue is the only half-god, half-human there, where leaders protect their magical powers at all costs and thrive on human suffering. Miserable and desperate to see her sister on the anniversary of their mother’s death, Rue breaks Ghizon’s sacred Do Not Leave Law and returns to Houston, only to discover that Black kids are being forced into crime and violence. And her sister, Tasha, is in danger of falling sway to the very forces that claimed their mother’s life. Worse still, evidence mounts that the evil plaguing East Row is the same one that lurks in Ghizon—an evil that will stop at nothing until it has stolen everything from her and everyone she loves. Rue must embrace her true identity and wield the full magnitude of her ancestors’ power to save her neighborhood before the gods burn it to the ground.

1001 Amazing Facts about The Best Bands - Volume 1

Jane Williams was never a normal teenage girl. From the moment she was born she was given this task. She had this mission and journey that she had to set out on from the moment she came onto this earth. Though growing up in a foster home she didn't know much about yourself. When Jane was left on the steps as a infant she believed that no one wanted her or loved her. That there was nothing special about her. But all that changes as she grows up. And the more she grows the more she see's. The more the nightmare's and dreams come to her at night and show her the dangers she will come across. Not to mention the overwhelming amount of responsibility that she will have to grow on shoulders. She never thought her teenage life could become anymore troubling then it is now. But with one bad dream. You would have never thought it would lead to so much questions and surprises. An Uncle that is barely your uncle comes into your life. Sprouting out nonsense of destiny and a fight with heaven and hell over her. And it was one thing to have men fight over her. But never once did she think that two of the most powerful things in the world would be fighting to have her. But either one can literally kill her. Not something that you wish to hear during your days as a sixteen year old. And things only begin to hore from bad to worst for her. It seems to be one gigantic roller coaster ride for her. And if you are willing to take that ride then you will see all the rough turns it will take her.

This is the first book printed from type set on the linotype composing machine invented by Ottmar Mergenthaler.

A few months ago they were just four determined girls. Then there was The X Factor, the screaming fans and the record deal – life for Little Mix would never be the same again. Now join the UK ’s hottest new girl group as they sing their way to superstardom.

From "Raindrops on roses and whiskers on kittens" to "Doe, a deer, a female deer," many people have grown up humming the tunes or singing the lyrics to the songs from the beloved movie The Sound of Music. But what is the real story behind the brave von Trapp family? V is for von Trapp: A Musical Family Alphabet gives a behind-the-headlines look at this real-life singing family made famous in the classic movie. Starting with their idyllic early life in Austria where their love of music and performing began, author William Anderson takes readers along on the family's courageous mountaintop escape from Nazi authorities to their new life in America and the famous von Trapp family lodge in the Vermont hills. Meet determined Maria, the dashing Captain, and their talented children; the famous von Trapps whose life story captivated thousands and continues to inspire with its legacy of hope and achievement. Author, historian, and lecturer William Anderson did extensive research and interviews with the von Trapp family. His previous book with Sleeping Bear is M is for Mount Rushmore: A South Dakota Alphabet. William lives in Lapeer, Michigan. Linda Graves is the illustrator of over 30 children's books, published worldwide. She was born in Eureka, California, and graduated with a degree in illustration from San Jose State University. Linda is a member of the Western Massachusetts Illustrators Guild, and lives in the woods of Berkshire County, Massachusetts.

The Routledge Handbook to Sociology of Music Education is a comprehensive, authoritative and state-of-the-art review of current research in the field. The opening introduction orients the reader to the field, highlights recent developments, and draws together concepts and research methods to be covered. The chapters that follow are written by respected, experienced experts on key issues in their area of specialisation. From separate beginnings in the United States, Europe, and the United Kingdom in the mid-twentieth century, the field of the sociology of music education has and continues to experience rapid and global development. It could be argued that this Handbook marks its coming of age. The Handbook is dedicated to the exclusive and explicit application of sociological constructs and theories to issues such as globalisation, immigration, post-colonialism, inter-generational musicking, socialisation, inclusion, exclusion, hegemony, symbolic violence, and popular culture. Contexts range from formal compulsory schooling to non-formal communal environments to informal music making and listening. The Handbook is aimed at graduate students, researchers and professionals, but will also be a useful text for undergraduate students in music, education, and cultural studies.

Patsy was diagnosed with Stage IV colon cancer February 25th, 2013. She was 34 years old, a happy, healthy mother of 3 with no symptoms or family medical history of colorectal cancer. Her next 3 years would be filled with chemo, surgeries, CT/PET scans and disappointments as treatment failed to clear the cancer. But they were also filled with happiness, faith, love, laughter, advocacy and dancing. We put her writings together in order that others can benefit from her amazing spirit and so we can share her with the world. This is the book she always wanted to write.

Kassandra Haden loves working with kids, her quaint cown on the golf course, and most of all, her dog, Lula. She ’s happy being alone, having convinced herself that people can ’t be trusted. But when Lula gets lost, Kassandra ’s thrown into a different world, one that insists she come out of her shell. As allured as she is frightened, Kassandra can ’t seem to stay away from the dog shelter, and the devastatingly attractive owner seems to be the cause. Jayden Beaumont isn ’t used to taking no for an answer. Running a no kill dog shelter isn ’t easy, but Jayden embraces it. She lives for her work and saves many lives the process. But in doing so, she ’s neglected her own, and it ’s about to cost her big. When Kassandra walks into Jayden ’s shelter, two very different personalities collide. Can either woman open and trust in order to embrace the life they could have together?
