So as we go through our daily routine, how can we seek to live the truth in love? Living in this way must first begin with a desire to seek the truth. It will take effort, courage and wisdom to find truth in the midst of our world. When we encounter information and before we make judgments, we must take a step back and recognize our own bias.

So it is biblical to share hard truths with others " in love, " in the manner that the phrase is commonly used. Looking at the context of Ephesians 4:15, however, gives us deeper insight on what it means to " speak the truth in love. " In the verses prior to the command to speak the truth in love, Paul writes about unity in the body of Christ. He urges the Ephesians, and all Christians by extension, to " live a life worthy of the calling you have received " (Ephesians 4:1).

Speaking in love includes speech that is gentle (Prov 15:1) and confident in God's Word. It includes the elements of love that are described in 1 Corinthians 13. We don't need to be afraid to lovingly rebuke one another because this is an example of speaking the truth in love if we do it as God instructs.
