In her most ambitious novel to date, Kristin Hannah delivers an incandescent story about the resilience of the human spirit, the triumph of hope, and the mysterious places in the heart where love lies waiting.

Magic Hour – Kristin Hannah

Magic Hour by Kristin Hannah is a well researched, beautiful read about a "wolf girl". This emotional read has many heart tugging moments. The characters (Julia, Ellie, Max and Cal) of this book are equally interesting as they each experience self growth, family bonds and love.

I bought more of Kristin Hannah's books after reading, and LOVING, The Nightingale, hoping for some more brilliance. But, as is often the case, authors only produce one masterpiece. Her other books are good and well-written, but not as captivating and thrilling as The Nightingale. 4 stars - Magic Hour pulls you in, the characters are well-written and the story is very emotional.

Magic Hour. Discussion Questions. 1. Kristin Hannah writes that "the modern world no longer believed in senseless tragedy." Why do you think people often need to hold someone accountable when something goes wrong? Is it human nature to play the blame game? Would a guilty verdict have offered the parents of those killed some solace?
