A single-spaced paper doesn't fit the MLA profile. The intention is to make the paper easier for the professor to read - it also makes it easier for them to leave notes, as we've all learned. Don't forget this rule. As a side note, you may want to try writing your paper in single-spaced form - then turn it into a double-spaced paper. You'll turn a two page, tentative rant into a four page research paper in seconds.
