Overall, however, the number of articles about second language writing and writers has remained sparse in these and related publications (e.g., Computers and Composition, Teaching English in the Two-Year College, Written Communication) in the past 10 years.

The Disciplinary Identity of Second Language Writing ...

Abstract. The field of second language (L2) writing has moved beyond the false dichotomies between process- and genre-based pedagogies perpetuated in the 1980s and 1990s, but there has still been little research on how the two are actually reconciled in the classroom. Consequently, L2 writing instructors are left with an incomplete picture, unsure how to incorporate such research into their own classrooms.
