

The Bosnia List A Memoir Of War Exile And Return

The Bosnia List A Memoir

The Bosnia List is an astonishing book, showing the complexity of human motives and the vagaries of morality. It's engaging, able to convey powerful emotions without resorting to sentimentality. As an afterthought, it's interesting to note that the protagonist identifies the suffering of the Bosnians with that of Jews during the Holocaust.

The Bosnia List: A Memoir of War, Exile, and Return ...

The Bosnia List is a memoir of Kenan Trebinčević, who returned to a place that was torn by war. In one night his friends and neighbors turned on him and his world was changed. After his family fled his home of Brcko he lived in New York and his hate for those that betrayed him festered.
