The Ugly Truckling was a cute story by David Gordon, but my niece, nephew, and I didn't think it was as good as The Three Little Pigs, or Hansel and Diesel. The story seemed a little less developed than in these other two books, or rather, it seemed perhaps less clever. The illustrations were nice.

The ugly duckling hung his dead and waddled far away from the farmer's house. He waddled through now frozen marsh plants and large frozen river reeds. He waddled over frozen bundles of sticks and frozen piles of dung. All this waddling made him colder than ever. Miraculously, the ugly duckling had survived the cold winter. With spring, all of the frozen ponds melted and the frost evaporated ...
